And to: Any other party required to be served

This document notifies you that:

1. On behalf of Nga Hapū o Kokoronui ki te Toka a Taiau Takutai Kaitiaki Trust (“Trust”), the applicant, Marise Marcia Lant (nee Matenga) of 4 Peter Buck Street, Kaiti, Gisborne applies for:
 - a) A recognition order of a protected customary right under the Marine and Coastal Area (Takutai Moana) Act (“MACA”); and/or
 - b) Recognition of customary marine title under the MACA.

Reliance

2. This application is made under s100 of the MACA, in reliance on s51 MACA (protected customary rights); and s58 of the MACA (customary marine title).
3. The recent decision in Re Tipene is also relied upon, as the only guidance so far provided from the Court on the process under the MACA.¹

The Applicant Group (s101(c) of the MACA)

4. The hapū represented by the Trust are:
 - a) Nga Hapū o Ngāti Wakarara;
 - b) Ngāti Hau;
 - c) Ngāti Ira;
 - d) Ngāti Patuwhare;

- e) Te Whanau a Te Rangipureora;
 - f) Ngāti Kuranui and Ngāti Kahukuranui; and
 - g) Ngāti Kanohi.
5. At the date of filing this application the following hapū representatives were confirmed, and with the Court's leave will provide evidence as this application progresses:
- a) Marise Lant, for Ngāti Patuwhare;
 - b) Trevor Maurirere for Ngāti Ira and Ngāti Kahukuranui; and
 - c) Elizabeth Albert for Ngāti Ira.
6. Hapū hui are being scheduled in early May to confirm the kaikorero for the other hapū involved in this application. Further information will be provided, with the Court's leave, as this application progresses.
7. This application is accompanied by the affidavit of Marise Lant, which sets out the basis on which the hapū represented by the Trust claim to be entitled to the recognition order, as required by s101(h) of the MACA.

Application Requirements

Timing (s100(2))

8. This application is filed before the deadline of 3 April 2017.

Application for Recognition of Customary Rights, Customary Marine Title, or Both (s101(a))

9. This application is for recognition of both customary rights under s51 of the MACA, and customary marine title under s58 of the MACA.

Description of the Customary Rights (s101(b))

10. The claimants have exercised rantatiratanga over their marine and coastal area² from well before to 1840 to the current day.
11. This is demonstrated through the exercise of kaitiakitanga over the marine and coastal area; use of the area for transport; aquaculture; and the use of rocks, sands and other minerals.
12. The applicant hapū use the marine and coastal area for gathering kai moana. They collect shellfish, and catch fish both from the beach and out to sea in marked fishing grounds. They also exercise control over the area through the imposition of rāhui.
13. The applicant hapū also protect waahi tapu, burial sites and other sacred sites in their rohe, many of which are in the marine and coastal area, or just inland. They had kāinga and burial grounds scattered inland from the beach.

The Particular Area (s101(d))

14. The hapū are kaitiaki for the whole southern boundary area of Ngāti Porou.
15. The area stretches along the shore line from the top of Anaura Bay in the north, to Whangara in the south—specifically the southern mouth of the Pakarae River.
16. The applicant hapū exercise customary rights according to their own tikanga between those two points, and out to sea well past the limits of the territorial sea, to a distance of 200 nautical miles. The area includes the airspace above these points as allowed by legislation.

² As defined by s9 MACA

17. Maps have been generated and are attached as Appendix "A" to the affidavit of Marise Lant. With the Courts leave these maps may be refined or updated as this application is progressed.

Grounds (S101(e))

18. The grounds upon which orders are sought are as follows:
 - a) The hapū represented by the Trust have resolved to seek a recognition order of a protected customary right under the Marine and Coastal Area (Takutai Moana) Act ("MACA") ; and/or recognition of customary marine title under the MACA.
 - b) The hapū within the Trust hold mana whenua over the southern area of the East Cape.
 - c) They have lived in this area, and exercised exclusive customary rights within it, since prior to the arrival of Pākehā in this country.³
 - d) The area is held according to their tikanga and they continue the traditions of kaitiakitanga handed down to them. Many of the traditions that will be developed in further evidence are exercised in the same way as they were in 1840. Some have evolved over time.⁴
 - e) The protected customary rights in question have not been extinguished as a matter of law.⁵
 - f) The applicant hapū hold their rohe in accordance

³ S51(1)(a) MACA

⁴ S51(1)(b) MACA

⁵ S51(1)(c) MACA

with tikanga.⁶

- g) The applicant hapū have exclusively used and occupied the area since 1840 until the present day without substantial interruption.⁷
- h) In addition, members of the hapū own land abutting part of the specified area, and have done so without substantial interruption from 1840 to the present day.⁸ The hapū have also exercised non-commercial customary fishing rights in the specified area from before 1840 to the present day.⁹
- i) These two matters will be the subject of further hapū evidence as this application is progressed.
- j) All relevant parties will be served contemporaneously with the filing of this application in satisfaction of the requirements in s102 of the MACA.
- k) Public notice will be given no later than 20 working days following filing of this application.¹⁰

Person to be Holder of the Order (s101(f))

19. The person to be the holder of the order is Marise Lant, as Chairperson of the Trust.

Contact Details for the Group (s101(g))

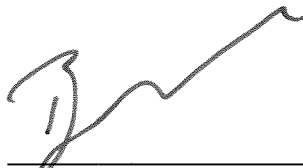

20. The Trust ask that contact be made through contact with counsel, contact details set out at the foot of this application.

⁷ S58(1)(b)(i) MACA
⁸ S59(1)(a)(i) MACA
⁹ S59(1)(a)(ii) MACA
¹⁰ S103 MACA

Conclusion

21. With the courts leave the applicant hapū will provide further evidence following hapū hui, and seek to further particularise this application as research is received.
22. I certify that this application complies with the High Court Rules.
