MINUTE OF HARVEY J

Introduction

[1] A case management conference was convened with counsel on 18 July 2024. During the conference several issues were raised by counsel including the interested parties' applications for a stay of the Court's determination of the Whangarei 1 (a) proceedings and adjournment the Whangarei 1(b) hearings, the Attorney General's recent memorandum and the hearings that are due to commence on 19 August 2024.

[2] The following directions are now issued:

- (a) Notices must be filed by 4 pm today, Friday 19 July 2024.
- (b) Further submissions are to be filed in a week, by Friday 26 July 2024.
- (c) Reply submissions must be filed by the following Monday 29 July next.

[3] The applications for stay and adjournment will then be dealt with on the papers.

[4] Until the application for adjournment is determined, for planning purposes the hearing timetable set out in Mr Hockley's joint memorandum of counsel is confirmed. Cross examination notices should also be filed in the usual way.
