 NZLR 806 correctly decided? And, if not

REASONS

[1] There is an issue whether there is a decision of the Court of Appeal under s 383 of the Crimes Act 1961 as to conviction against which an appeal to this Court could lie. If not, there is no jurisdiction for an appeal to this Court from the Court of Appeal, but there would be jurisdiction to entertain a direct appeal from the High Court.

[2] In those circumstances we will not require argument as to jurisdiction.
