

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF NEW ZEALAND

SC 32/2015
[2015] NZSC 93

BETWEEN VINCENT ROSS SIEMER
 Applicant

AND CLARE O'BRIEN
 First Respondent

 ATTORNEY-GENERAL
 Second Respondent

Court: Elias CJ, William Young and O'Regan JJ

Counsel: V R Siemer in person
 D L Harris for First and Second Respondents

Judgment: 26 June 2015

JUDGMENT OF THE COURT

The application for recall of the Court's judgment in Siemer v O'Brien & Anor
[2015] NZSC 64 is dismissed.

REASONS

[1] The applicant applies for the recall of our judgment dismissing his application for leave to appeal against a procedural direction made by White J.¹

[2] The application is made on the ground that the judgment misstated the applicant's proposed appeal ground.

[3] We see nothing of substance in the application for recall. The judgment did not set out in detail the proposed appeal ground because it was not necessary to do so. There was no material inaccuracy in the judgment and there is no proper basis for it to be recalled.

[4] The application for recall is therefore dismissed.
